NOTICE

In Accordance with Texas Government Code, section 2254.1036(a)(1), the Dallam County Commissioners Court provides the following written notice to the public in connection with the above agenda item:

1. Dallam County is pursuing the legal services of McCreary, Veselka, Bragg and Allen, P.C., a delinquent tax collection law firm, to collect delinquent taxes owed to the taxing units for whom Dallam County collects. The desired outcome of the legal services would be for Dallam County to collect the delinquent taxes that its taxing units are owed in as short a time period as is possible.
2. McCreary, Veselka, Bragg and Allen, P.C. have been competently collecting delinquent taxes for over sixty-years, and currently represents hundreds of Texas taxing units in the collection of delinquent taxes. McCreary, Veselka, Bragg and Allen, P.C. is a competent, qualified, and experienced delinquent tax collection law firm.
3. There is no current or prior relationship between McCreary, Veselka, Bragg and Allen, P.C. and Dallam County.
4. The legal services desired by Dallam County that are the subject of the contract cannot be adequately performed by the attorneys and supporting personnel of Dallam County due to the high cost of implementing the appropriate infrastructure and technology and employing sufficient attorneys and staff to perform these activities.
5. The legal services desired by Dallam County that are the subject of the contract cannot be reasonably obtained from attorneys in private practice under a contract providing for the payment of hourly fees without contingency because Dallam County does not have funds in its budget to pay the estimated hourly fees and other costs incurred to implement an effective delinquent tax collection program under a contract providing only for the payment of hourly fees and costs. Texas Tax Code, sections 6.30; 33.07; 33.08; and 33.11 allow a taxing unit to recover a penalty to defray the costs of collecting delinquent taxes, only if the taxing unit has entered into a contract with a private attorney pursuant to Texas Tax Code Section 6.30.
6. To defray the cost of collecting delinquent taxes as provided by Texas Tax Code, sections 6.30; 33.07; 33.08; and 33.11, and to save money and ensure that the collection of delinquent taxes is diligently prosecuted throughout Dallam County, a contingent fee contract with McCreary, Veselka, Bragg and Allen, P.C. is in the best interests of the residents of Dallam County.
